Andrew Peller Limited Announces Senior Executive Appointment

GRIMSBY, Ontario – June 8, 2022 – Andrew Peller Limited (Toronto Stock Exchange: ADW.A/ADW.B) (“APL” or the “Company”) today announced the appointment of Paul Dubkowski as Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President of Information Technology effective July 11, 2022. Paul joins Andrew Peller with over 20 years of Finance, Accounting and IT experience leading organizations in hospitality and retail. Most recently he has spent the last two years as Senior Vice President at Indigo and pre-pandemic spent two years as Senior Vice President at Sunwing. Prior to this experience Paul spent 15 years at Accor Hotels where he held progressively senior Finance, Accounting and Strategy roles. Paul is a well-rounded finance leader with a proven track record of growing and managing successful teams and companies. At APL, Paul will be responsible for leading the Company’s Finance, Accounting and IT functions in support of the Company’s overall growth agenda. “Paul brings significant senior expertise to our Finance and IT functions and will play a critical role on our leadership team. Paul’s leadership will be instrumental in driving our growth strategy to position APL for future success,” said John Peller, CEO and President.

Steve Attridge, current CFO and EVP, IT will remain with APL to transition with Paul and continue to lead the Company’s digital and business process transformation. “I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to Steve for his leadership over the past four years. He was instrumental in leading our ERP implementation and will continue to optimize not only Oracle but the additional and significant systems and process reinvention work underway” said John Peller, CEO and President.
